

The Houston Social Forum is not designed to be a means to an end but rather as an ongoing process focused on realizing global harmony. The event will include panels, speakers, and discussion, and if you are not present, your perspective will not be represented. The benefits for your organization include the ability to increase your membership, disseminate information, and network with other groups working on the same or similar issues.

HOUSTON SOCIAL FORUM::

- Challenging totalitarian mentalities that value profit over people
- A decentralized body of individuals, organizations, and movements
- A regional event that addresses local as well as global issues
 - Responsible, sustainable and environmentally aware
 - Nongovernmental, nonpartisan
- Supportive of true participatory democracy (ie. free exchange)
 - Nonviolent resistance to the world's injustice
- Seeking active participation from groups and individuals for
