

University of St. Thomas Center for International Studies

Ethics and Dissent in Public Service: Case Studies from Iraq & Afghanistan

Colonel Ann Wright, Ret.

Soldier, Diplomat and Author

Tuesday, March 25, 2008

7:00 p.m.

Anderson Hall, 3913 Mt. Vernon

As military officer and diplomat, Colonel, USA (Ret.) Ann Wright served repeatedly in crisis situations on three continents during the last thirty years. She was Deputy Chief of Mission in four U.S. Embassies: Micronesia, Sierra Leone, Afghanistan in 2001 - 2002, and Mongolia. She also was assigned to Nicaragua, Grenada, Somalia, Uzbekistan, and Kyrgyzstan.

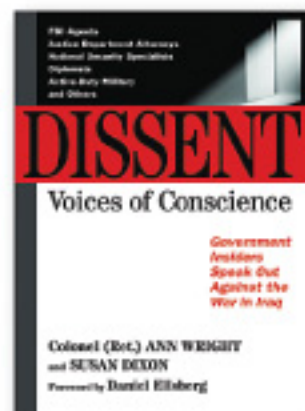

"It is with heavy heart that I must end my service to America. . ."

March 19, 2003 - U.S. Embassy, Ulaanbataar, Mongolia

Free and Open to the Public
Parking Available in Moran Center
Graustark at W. Alabama

Dissent: Voices of Conscience on sale at the event courtesy of Brazos Bookstore

For more information contact Diana Garcia at (713) 525-3530 or garciad@stthom.edu